

Melbourne Cup sweepstake P18-19

Bay of Plenty TIMES

$1.80 ($9 per week home delivery)

Tuesday, November 4, 2014

Saving lives in South Sudan

PAGES 8-9

The moment a jetski stunt went wrong

Exclusive images plus rescuer tells of aftermath P2

Retail developments to feature big names

Some of New Zealand's biggest names in retailing will feature in developments due to open in Tauriko and Pyes Pa over the next 15 months.

The Bay of Plenty Times can today reveal further details of multi-million dollar projects in the areas, including a new aquatic centre run by Olympic swimmer Liz Cummings (nee van Welie) and her husband.

FULL STORY – PAGE 3

You get a lot more for your $$ in Palm Springs, Papamoa

Own a piece of paradise

- Fabulous location close to the beach
- Generously sized sections with room for a pool
- High quality homes in a beautifully landscaped and streetscaped development
- Many sites opening onto reserves with specially designed waterways, cycle paths, walkways and shared recreational areas

This environmentally friendly and prestigious development is a truly sought after destination. New sections available now. Come and have a look today!

Visit our Sales Office

At the end of
Palm Springs Boulevard
off Papamoa Beach Road,
Papamoa

Open 10am - 5pm
7 days

or phone

0800 808 889

or email

info@palm Springs.co.nz